We desire to express our appreciation and thanks to the people of Morrisville and vicinity, for their liberality and kind assistance extended to us in many ways since the fire at our place.

Mrs. & Mrs. CHAS. TOWN.

The "Peak Sisters" will give an entertainment, under the auspices of the young ladies of the Unitarian Society, at Town Hall, this (Wednesday) eve. Begins at 7 o'clock. Tickets for the exercises: admission 10c.

The Railroad Co., of course, have the right to run their own business, but from an outside point of view, the recent removal of Station Agent Town, at Hyde Park, was an outrage of the first order. He was a well known and obliging agent on the road, and it is regretted to learn that he ever neglected his duties in any respect.

Grand Auction Sale Saturday afternoon, and evening, Dec. 2nd, 1882, at C. Chapman Hill's, an overstock of men's boots, shoes and rubber goods, also a large line of whips, hatters, suncloths, blankets, robes, h. ufoles, valises, harnesses, etc. The sale wanting goods cheap should come out.

The names of the pupils in the grammar and intermediate departments who have been neither absent or tardy during the autumn term, ending Nov. 21st, are: Hattie Elm, Lovisa Leach, Mabel Bundy, Alma Cheney, Nelson Irish, George Bushee, Henry George, Walter Fitch, Fred Bushee, Walter Gilbert, Glenn Gould, Eva Darling, Lila Niles.

The winter term of the Peoples' Academy and Morrisville Graded School begins Wednesday, Dec. 6th. The school has never been more prosperous. The fall term just closed was one of the largest in attendance since the opening thirty-four years ago. No trouble in getting board in good families for $2.50 per week, or accommodations for self boarding at a moderate nominal sum. Never could an education be obtained for less money at this institution than now.

We passed a little girl the other day who was sweeping about in the snow. She had on cotton hose, etc. She coughed several times while we were passing. By and by the mother may wonder why her little one is so slender and perhaps why she should be taken and so many others left. Better put on heavy woolen stockings and wear, it may not look as nice, but the limbs will grow to look better and there will be less coughing and better health generally.—Facts.

G. A. Barrows went over to his barn in Brookline, Monday, where he found that a fine pig he was intending to kill in a few weeks, had disappeared. There was blood to show that a struggle for life had been made, but no voice called for corn meal. The silence was broken by "Gill," however, and an investigation followed. The committee reported mistaken identity by the party sent to slaughter a neighbor's pig, the sole cause for complaint.

The proceeds are to be appropriated for the Sunday-School Christmas tree.

There seems to be a little competition among our merchants just now, as to who shall sell winter wheat flour the lowest. The price has been advanced the past week to $3.00.

Kerosene oil also is now offered at nine cents per gallon, and other groceries accordingly. Certainly "Competition is the life of trade." Let the people rejoice.

The tender of the engine "Lamaille" was backed off the turn-table Sunday last and considerable damage done, to both that and the engine. The fireman, a new hand, was engaged in attempting to back the engine, and he was on the main track, ran his engine back with the above results.

Friday next the new county officers will be sworn in. R. A. Savage goes up a step higher and succeeds Judge Small as first assistant judge, and Charles Wait of Eden, takes the place of second assistant; R. S. Page enters upon his third term as Judge of Probate; H. C. Lanpher, after serving ten years as Deputy, becomes commander in chief; and the new legislative representatives of Carley's Falls, C. Dodge, Esq., assumes the honorable duties of High Sheriff.

Now hear Hught! Tith says if any one desires to buy an overcoat they will be difficult to beat his prices. A full line of underwear of every description; also ladies' button k.d. boots at $1 a pair. He has a full and complete line of holiday goods. He has just received another supply of apples, which he is prepared to sell at $2.50, $3 and $3.35 per barrel, the latter being choice No. 1 apples. Also, he has down to sell at $4.75 per barrel and upwards. Eggs, 32 cents per dozen, and Climax tobacco, 7 cents a cut.—Advt.

Our people were very much surprised on Saturday morning last to learn of the removal of E. B. Town from the office of station agent, a position which he had filled for the past eight or nine years with such entire satisfaction to the business and traveling public as to render him deservedly one of the most popular agents upon the whole line. The cause assigned for his removal was the selling of "Gill," however, and the investigation followed. The committee reported mistaken identity by the party sent to slaughter a neighbor's pig, the sole cause for complaint.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

The sudden death of F. Cady casts a gloom over a wide circle, but for the very timely and appropriate suggestions of the preacher at his very solemn and widely attended funeral, making the hope of immortality a guiding and cheering star in all human destiny, one might indeed feel that it were better never to have been born.

Mr. Wheelock said with the heart-breaking losses the crushing heave, the cares and sorrows, the bitter regrets and the saddest assaults of human life, one might indeed feel that it were better never to have been born.

The agents of the railroad company, engaged in the work of constructing the extension from Cambridge to Johnson, have been making prices and settling terms of land damages along the line for several days past, and are anxious of being able to meet the contractors and give out estimates of the work very soon.

Irving Melody is again at home in season to join the Thanksgiving party at the new and elegant parlors in the paternal mansion.

A new coal store adds much to the comfort of the depot at Jeffersonville, and would be a very comfortable addition to the quarters of the Cambridge Junction.

Nice dry wood is accumulating at the engine-house, caused by the slight covering of snow, enabling the teamsters to be runners.
